G D G

b a g

Could there be?

It was my sin that nailed Him up

My iniquities His cup

In His final darkest hour

It was my sin that hid the Father

[CHORUS]

Agony the Father knew

As His only Son they slew

And His body hung there dead

And His wounds no longer bled

[CHORUS]

We were glad He was the King

And His praises we would sing,

But He also was the Lamb

Had to die and raise again

[CHORUS]

Jesus proved He won the keys

To sin's final fatal sting

Conquered death, no easy task

Vanquished sin for us at last

[CHORUS]

Now ascended to the throne

Lamb of God the victory won

Sent the Holy Spirit in stead

Guiding us each moment's breath

I cannot see,    the way ahead.

B7                            E d#        e   f#   a    g#            f#   e
And when I try, then nothing turns out right.

E                    A                    F#m

But when I walk,    my hand in yours

G#m7    B7        E
g#    f#   d#   f#   e
Then I arrive just fine.

All other loves, may fall away
From lack of faithfulness or by the grave
But You remain, my One great Love
And I arrive just fine

Man does not live, on bread alone
But by each word that comes from your lips
And so I live, on Your true words,
Then I arrive just fine.

[Repeat 1st Verse]

And when the end, shall come to me
And when I stand on the edge of eternity
I'll know Your voice, You'll call my name
And I'll arrive just fine.

It comes not from my own strength

G G Bm7 D

When still the end is far

---

My feelings cannot kill faith; Though daily they try to kill
With flesh on its side so strong; The LORD's Spirit's stronger still

I watch for His every step; The ways that He moves me on To each promise that He speaks; Unto every victory won

[CHORUS]

Amazing, His love, so dear; I feel it inside and out
I know that His love is great; It wins over every doubt

No license to sin, nor fear; Shall mar me along my way
For Jesus, my Lord alone; Shall be with me every day

[CHORUS]

He purchased my every breath; I can't have another lord
He guides me by every step; He fills me with His pure Word

[CHORUS]

And when I have run my race; I'll long for His praise alone
The whisper of His sweet voice; Will finally call me home

Help me obey.

I won't trade away my Kingdom rights; For the pleasure of some sin at night
Keep me in Your arms secure; You give sleep to those You love

[CHORUS]

Even though my heart will betray me; And my mind is weak and cannot see
You will give your Spirit to complete; Every single promise that You speak

[CHORUS]

When I have enough to satisfy; All my little whims and appetites
You must always be my All in All; Nothing in this world can be my lord

[CHORUS]

You alone are Yahweh, You are God; You're my Father and You're good
I'll forgive all others for their sins; Just as You forgive my sins

[CHORUS]

Give Your Holy Spirit, I will pray; When I cannot pray then He will pray
He will give me words to say to You; Pure and right and always true

[CHORUS]

You are changing me from day to day; Through my little prayers and all the way
I am full of joy that You love me; And that You are saving me
